Driving Directions to Sacred Heart Monastery and the Benedictine Sisters Retreat Center

Driving by way of I-65:

Sacred Heart Monastery and the Benedictine Sisters Retreat Center are located on the east side of Cullman, approximately 2.6 miles from I-65 Exit N. 308. From this exit follow US Highway 278 East.

Turn left off 278 East onto Convent Rd. at a 3-way traffic light. Drive two blocks. Enter the second gate on the right (you will see spacious lawns and large buildings). The parking area is to the right.

Note: If, while you are on 278 East you see the St. Bernard Abbey entrance on your right, you have driven about three blocks too far. Turn around and come back to the first traffic light, then turn right onto Convent Rd.

Driving by way of US 278:

From the east: Convent Rd. is marked by the first traffic light on your arrival in Cullman. Turn right onto Convent Rd, then drive two blocks. Enter the second gate on the right (you will see spacious lawns and large buildings). The parking area is to the right.

From the west: Drive through Cullman to Convent Rd. (approximately 2.6 miles from the I-65/US 278 intersection), then turn left onto Convent Rd. at a 3-way traffic light. Drive two blocks. Enter the second gate on the right (you will see spacious lawns and large buildings). The parking area is to the right. Note: If while you are driving east on US 278 you see the St. Bernard Abbey entrance on your right, you have driven about three blocks too far. Turn around and come back to the first traffic light, then turn right onto Convent Rd.
